

John La Tour, Member of the Board

John was born and raised in Ville Platte, Louisiana, the son of a land surveyor and public school teacher. Upon completion of a Bachelor's degree in Business Management and Accounting, he moved to Fayetteville, Arkansas in 1979.

Graduating with a Master's in Business Administration from the University of Arkansas in 1981, he has practiced accounting as a CPA since 1981 in the same office building in downtown Fayetteville.

In 2007 he earned a Juris Doctorate in 2007 from Oak Brook College and established his law practice in 2010. Mr. La Tour has participated in various entrepreneurial ventures in northwest Arkansas. He and his wife of 22 years, Elizabeth, have nine children.