

Beth Oloffson, Member of the Board

Beth received her Bachelors in Occupational Therapy (2004) and Masters in Education Administration (2006) from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio. Beth is a stay-at-home mother to her son, Thomas, born in 2011. Beth also currently works part-time as a pediatric occupational therapist in a day treatment program serving children who have been abused or neglected.

Her previous pro-life work includes participation in Students for Life in college, attending March for Life in Washington D.C., serving as a pregnancy center volunteer, and attending various prayer vigils and rosaries for the unborn. Beth and her husband Rich teach Natural Family Planning classes to engaged and married couples in Fayetteville.